

September 27, 2004

Stage Calibrations

If you need to replace an ECM under warranty which has a stage calibration installed, and you are seeking coverage for the calibration download, you must contact Technical Service prior to replacing the ECM. Technical Service will want to know what diagnostic tests were performed along with a copy of the System ID from Digital Technician and mileage. Please have this information available when you call.