

TT241 – May 05, 2006

Remanufactured Engine Installation

IMPORTANT NOTE

Harley-Davidson recommends cleaning the oil tank, oil cooler and oil lines after a failure which has generated debris before installing a remanufactured engine. Oil tanks and coolers need to be thoroughly cleaned with hot soapy water. Use an ultra-sonic cleaner where possible. It is generally accepted that oil lines should be cleaned or replaced. Failure to do so could cause damage and void the warranty.